

PROPERTY OF DESCENDANTS OF THE PICKERING FAMILY
(Lots 475-489)

475. COX-PICKERING FAMILY SALEM QUEEN ANNE CARVED WALNUT BONNET-TOP HIGHBOY. CIRCA 1750. In two parts: the upper with swan's neck crest above a case with three short drawers, the center one fan-carved, over four long drawers, each graduated and beaded; the lower section with a long drawer and three short drawers, over a shaped skirt on cabriole legs with pad feet. Height 91½ inches, case width 39½ inches.

Provenance:
By direct descent in the family.

Literature:
This highboy is illustrated in Samuel Chamberlain's SALEM INTERIORS, p. 6.

Est. $50,000-70,000

Northeast Auctions Portsmouth, NH Aug 20 - 21, 1994